

EAGLES TO ATTEND THE ELKS' FESTIVAL

Distinguished Guests Will Be In the Line of March.

Washington Aerie, No. 125, Order of Eagles, will attend the Elks' festival tonight.

Five hundred members of the Eagles will leave their club house at 8 o'clock, sharp, escorted by P. J. Foley and William H. Clarke, who are members of both organizations.

In the line of march will be, among others, Col. R. L. Montague, president of the local aerie; J. D. Britt, secretary; Grand Trustee Theodore Bell, of Colorado, who is in Washington to help secure the Panama exposition for San Francisco; Representative Julius Kahn, of California; Representative E. L. Taylor, of Ohio; Representative William Cary, of Wisconsin, and other speakers. From Baltimore will come Baltimore Lodge of Elks, No. 7, in special cars on the electric line.

Elks from Alexandria numbering 250, more than 200 Woodmen of the World, and officers of the Women's National Press Club were entertained by the Washington Lodge of Elks last night. When the Alexandrians alighted from their special cars last night they were welcomed by a committee of local lodgesmen and marched to the club house, escorted by the Elks' Escort Band. Representative C. C. Carlin made an address. He was followed by Howard W. Smith, exalted ruler of the Alexandria Lodge of Elks.

Later in the evening Chairman Harvey escorted Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood, national president of the Women's National Press Association, to the platform. Mrs. Lockwood made an address praising the charity and benevolence and general spirit of brotherly love of the Elks. Mrs. Lockwood was accompanied by Mrs. Ruth M. Griswold Pealer, district president of the Women's Christian Temperance Union and past National President of the Women's National Press Association; Mrs. L. J. Young Whitte, auditor; Mrs. Josephine A. Rich, vice president; and Mrs. Emma S. Brinton, recording secretary.

TELLS HOW TO SHIP EXPLOSIVES SAFELY

Railroad men who heard the lecture of J. L. Taylor, special agent of the Government bureau for the safe transportation of explosives, are today better equipped to perform their duty in handling dangerous shipments. The lecture was given at the Terminal Y. M. C. A. and the railroad men took a decided interest in the suggestions offered by the speaker. "The Safe Transportation of Explosives and Other Dangerous Articles" was the subject of this lecture.

TALK ON ENZYM ACTIONS.

"The Reversibility of Enzym Actions" was the subject of a lecture delivered before the Society of Research Workers at the University Club. The meeting was held last night, and the talk on this subject was given by Dr. C. S. Hudson, of the Department of Agriculture. Dr. William Salent presided.

Positively for one day--tomorrow--at $10.00

COME TOMORROW, SURE. There may be some of the suits left for Saturday, but we doubt it. Then again you cannot buy any of these Saturday for $10. They are offered for tomorrow—positively tomorrow only—at $10.00. This entire purchase of 857 suits, by actual count, were specially bought for a $15 sale. Shipments a week ahead of time finds us unprepared to give them window display or floor space now. Rather than put them into the stockroom and have them russed and rumpled we prefer to sell out what we can in one day.

The $10 price was decided upon as one that would create the wildest buying enthusiasm—bigger value than offered before this season

No suit in this sale has been shown before on our suit floor—they are all just received from the manufacturer.

These suits are made up of the ends of pieces of materials used by this maker in his higher priced suits—suits that sell regularly at $18 to $29.75. Most of them we have now or have had in stock at the prices named. We made the deal before the materials were cut and the styles of these suits are copies of the five best models we have had this season—practical plainly cut and tailored models—styles good for all occasions.

Of especial interest is the collection of Misses' Suits, there being more suits, better range of sizes and more kinds of materials than we have ever had in any sale—due to the fact that the manufacturer cut the suits to fit the short lengths he had on hand.

Solely out of justice to the little ones you ought to

Buy toys now while assortments are complete

A two-day special sale to induce you

Frankly you'll be unable to do as well later as you can now. That is the natural result of business. Those who put off to the last minute take what those who have been before them didn't want. This is applicable to every store that has any great volume of business and the ability to buy largely and keep prices down. You must have some consideration for the little ones or you will not think of buying any toys and dolls. Why not then do the thing right and choose now, when you can get more for your money than later, and perhaps get just what the little one wants and which might not be obtainable if you wait.
